FSP Diversity Statement

The Society of Financial Service Professionals is committed to creating and nurturing a diverse community for financial service professionals. We recognize that diversity of age, gender, ethnicity, and practice specialty will strengthen our ability to honor our core values of education, ethics, and relationships.

Through its Diversity Committee, the Society of FSP is identifying strategies and adopting policies to support the growing diversity of our membership. Benefit offerings, relationship-building, and leadership opportunities are developed with the objective of fostering inclusiveness and to help each individual member understand and meet the needs of the diverse clients they serve.
